Letter No.2585/S.L. dated 28th February 1935 from the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, to the Government Advocate, Bangalore.

"V. N. Takle -VS- Government.

"With reference to the appeal preferred by Government in the High Court, regarding the succession certificate and costs, etc., I have the honor to state that the requirements of this office will be satisfied if a succession certificate for Rs.6000/- is obtained by Mr. V.N.Takle from a competent Court in Mysore similar to the one he has obtained from the Sub Judge, Dhulia.

" 2. As Mr. V.N.Takle has unnecessarily and vexatiously involved Government in a declaratory suit although he was asked in the first instance alone to take out a succession certificate under the Mysore Securities Regulation, the costs which has had to be incurred throughout the conduct of this case by Government will have to be borne only by Mr.V.N.Takle."
